MIGRATION AGENCY

AS A MIGRATION AGENT I REPRESENT YOUR INTENTION

Although this service gives the applicant no guarantee of success in obtaining a visa, it is important to know that as you can only communicate with the Department in english, therefore it is prudent to consider the advantages of individual representation, thus considerably improving your chance of success.

You need professional and, above all, individual support, in order to realize your intention to immigrate to Australia. Therefore I would like to ask for your trust, and to allow me the privilege of assisting you.

As a registered migration agent I must operate in accordance with a stringent "Code of Conduct". This is a legislative requirement and it provides protection of our clients.

CHANCES IN DOWN UNDER

If you wish to migrate, you should also research topics such as:

- the availability and conditions of employment
- the living costs such as housing etc.
- the school system
- chances and how to go about self-employment

Bearing in mind our scope of expertise we would assist you with.

ABOUT US

My husband Rolf and I first migrated to Australia in 1968. We worked in Melbourne for two years and in Sydney for one year. Rolf worked in his profession of mechanical engineering, and I worked in my profession of architectural drafting.

Because of family considerations we returned to Germany in 1971, but we couldn't resist the Australian way of life and in 1983 we once again migrated to Australia.

This time to launch our own business –s the "Sailboard Centre" in Hervey Bay, Queensland. After seven successful years we then sold the business.

We spent the next year travelling extensively around the world. On our return to Australia in 1991, we bought a motel, the "Bay View Motel" in Hervey Bay/Queensland. We operated this business successfully.

Because of our personal experience and the growing interest in migration to Australia I decided to complete the required course of study to become a registered Migration Agent.
